

Amalia Zeitlin

---

Violin

Born and raised in Las Cruces, New Mexico, 24, has been playing violin since the age of seven, continuing a tradition of at least four generations in her family. Amalia graduated cum laude from Boston University in 2017, where she received a Bachelors of Music degree, specializing in Violin Performance under the direction of Professor Peter Zazofsky. Additionally, Amalia studied for one semester at the Jerusalem Academy of Music, where she studied violin with Professor Michael Gaisler. Amalia is currently pursuing her Masters of Music degree at New Mexico State University, where she studies with Simon Gollo. She made her solo debut in 2019, playing Mozart's Sinfonia Concertante with the New Horizons Symphony Orchestra. Amalia is the principal 2nd violinist of the El Paso Symphony, and a section first violinist in the Las Cruces Symphony. Additionally, Amalia is the executive director of Camerata del Sol, the professional string orchestra serving the Las Cruces / El Paso / Juarez region.

el paso symphony youth orchestras a division of the el paso symphony